SKETCHES OF LITTLE OLD NEW YORK
BY O. O. McINTYRE

Telegram Bureau: Rooms 121-123 Hotel Majestic, West Seventy-second Street.

NEW YORK, June 27.—Courtney Ryley Cooper, sometimes circus press agent and at other times writer of short stories about the circus, is in New York after a visit to California. Cooper denies the story that Charles Van Loan has been telling about him. It was told that Cooper and Van Loan visited an ostrich farm and one ostrich chased Cooper all the way back to the city because it thought when Cooper removed his hats that he had stolen an egg. Cooper says he has from three to four perfectly good hairs left in his head and that the ostrich was a little nearsighted only chased him for a couple of yards.

However, Cooper is getting even. He is telling a story on Van Loan that he backs up with an affidavit. He says they were duck hunting one season in Georgia and that Van Loan hit one duck.

"Great," shouted Cooper, "you got him."
"Yes," was the retort, "but might as well have saved my ammunition—the fall would have killed him anyway."

RUM-RIDDEN IS STATE OF INDIANA STILL

Notwithstanding the Effective Work Anti-Saloon League Has Done There.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS)
INDIANAPOLIS, June 27.—The Anti-Saloon League America held the opening session of its annual convention here today when Superintendent E. S. Shumaker of the Anti-Saloon League of Indiana welcomed the delegates.

Mr. Shumaker said the fight in Indiana had brought about a saloonless population in that state greater than in prohibition Kansas and three times as great as in prohibition Maine. "Allowing twenty-five feet to a saloon, we have permanently buried in this state nearly sixteen miles of saloon," he said. "Yet, in spite of this, Indiana is one of the worst rum-ridden states in the union."

"Indiana," he continued, "is now second in the manufacture of spirituous and eleventh in the manufacture of malt liquors. Many of our large cities are under the corrupt kind of brewery rule. Liquor interests in this state have actually controlled, at times in the past, in the selection of the chief executive of our state, of legislative assemblies and even congressmen, including some United States senators."

"As a result, public opinion has been outraged, laws have been trampled under foot and what amounts to a state of anarchy has ensued in some places."

"The people of Indiana have been very patient and long suffering amidst such indignities and have given the liquor interest every opportunity to make good, but the liquor interests have mocked at justice and have spurned mercy, defied law and public sentiment and at length the people in this fair state have made up the minds that the liquor traffic must go. Hence they have raised the banner of state-wide prohibition and have determined to elect a legislature this autumn which will liberate our state from the blight of the liquor traffic forever."

SEVERE PUNISHMENT

Of Mrs. Chappell, of Five Years' Standing, Relieved by Cardui.

Mr. Alry, N. C.—Mrs. Sarah M. Chappell of this town, says: "I suffered for five years with womanly troubles, also stomach troubles, and my punishment was more than any one could tell."

I tried most every kind of medicine, but none did me any good. I read one day about Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I decided to try it. I had not taken but about six bottles until I was almost cured. It did me more good than all the other medicines I had tried, put together."

My friends began asking me why I looked so well, and I told them about Cardui. Several are now taking it."

Do you, lady reader, suffer from any of the ailments due to womanly trouble such as headache, backache, sideache, sleeplessness, and that everlastingly tired feeling?

If so, let us urge you to give Cardui a trial. We feel confident it will help you just as it has a million other women in the past half century.

Begin taking Cardui to-day. You won't regret it. All druggists.
